

CHARACTER COUNTS-NOT PRETENCE

EVERY WOMAN'S UPPORTUNITY.

The Bulletin wants good home letters, good business letters; good help-ful letters of any kind the mind may suggest. They should be in hand by Wednesday of each week. Write on but one side of the paper. Address, SOCIAL CORNER EDITOR, Bulletin Office, Norwick, Conn.

THREE PRIZES MONTHLY: $2.50 to first; $1.50 to second; $1.00 to third. Award made the last Saturday in each month.

There was much as three things to see all to oncet—and such a banging and along by men. Two men! Leastwise, ried them like they was pink and slik umbrills—and was jest as smiling as a basket of chips. And I'll bet you two cents their husbands (if they had any) was eating a snack afore the buttery winder, and the kids staying to the nahors, or running the street, and jest like as not, and more likely, tew, apose to hum those wimmen would do much work (sick, most likely) and had to have there wash sent out, or some such. Them wimmen was working for 'rights,' yes-siree! You

Now, Mr. Editor, you see fust how tie.

git out, or cows git in the corn. And maybe you and I have it all fixed that Josh Peabody'll make an all-fired good first selectman. Then the wimmen folks will want his wife or his sister-in-law; and if his son is a good-looker, the gais will all want him to run. I

RECIPES FROM CLARA OF CAN-TERBURY. Dear Editor and Sisters of the Social

orner: Herewith I send a few reci-

Che Egg Cake-One-quarter cup c outter, one cup sugar, one-half cup milk, one egg well heaten, one and two-thirds cups flour, one and one-

Orange Cake-One-quarter cup of butter, one cup sugar, two eggs weil beaten, one-half cup milk, cno and two-thirds cups flour, one and one-half level teaspoon saking powder.

Chocolate Cake-One-quarter oup of botter, one cup sugar, one half cup nalk, one egg, one and one charter cups flour, one level tersnoor, baking owder, one square chocourts melted, one-half teaspoon vanilla.

Sister Lucy of Norwich. I tried your eagless Christmas cake for New Year.

ing you. I would like to meet or cor-respond with all the Sisters.

LITTLE THINGS WORTH KNOWING

That Mr. January and His Followers

South Canterbury.

CLARA OF CANTERBURY.

was very good.
I think I know Farmer's Wife of half level teaspoons baking powder.

right, Jane Ann said so.

latning swear words and such. I don't

SOCIAL CORNER POEM. Grawing Old.

A little more tired at close of day; little less anxious to have our way; little less ready to scold and blame; little more care for a brother's name;

A little less anxious to have our way:
A little more care for a brother's name:
And so we are nearing the journey's
and so we are nearing the journey's and where time and elernity meet and blend.

A little more care for bends and gold,
A little more rest in the duys of old;
A broader view and a samer mind,
And a little more love for all mankind;
And so we are faring a-down the way.
A little more love for the riends of youth,
A little less seal for "established"

"Eut what is wimmen's rights, unynow," says Jane.

And I seen she was deep in the fos
the the Dreamer in the cobwebs.

"Why," says I, "they want to wote and go to the presentent."

"The idee!" says she.

"Yes, that's it," says I. "Let me tell you one thing:
Trouble with these wimmen is they can't have anything to de. Why, some on 'em does, I s'pose; but if the men would strike for their rights—no more store-cooked victuals, nor storewashed closes, nuther—their rights

A little less seal for "established"

A little more charity in our views, A little less thirst for the daily news; And so we are folding our tents away

A little more leisure to sit and dream, A little more real the things unseen; A little more near to those ahead, With visions of those long loved and

And passing in stience at close of day.

dead: Thrice happy, then, if some soul can "I live because he has passed my way,"

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

SOMEBODY-The Social Corner was opened March 12th, 1910. Among the first contributors were Rural De-Svery, Aunt Prudence, Euth, Clover Elessom, Hannah Homespun, Kitty Katnip, Anna Laurs, M. Roema, Frank and quite a number who have fallen out. An lifer, who contributes weekly to The Bulletin, is Hannan Frincespun glarifled. The first prize winners for March, 1910, were Amalaura, Mrs. E. B. T., and Kitty Katwarded to Ready and to Crusoe.

ALINE-Please send in your adsend prize and pay for story a very nice story, by the way.

BEE SYMPATHIZES WITH SWEET LAVENDER.

Dear Sisters of the Social Corner:

After a long time I will again take a sent among you.

Sweet Lavender: You have my sympath, as I have passed through a similar experience. As I was thinking to enjoy the beautiful days of autumn, we very unsame the loss of hard work and resulted in my getting completely run down; not I again take to the lower barn and back the my getting completely run down; not I again take to the lower barn and back the my getting completely run down; not I again take a similar experience. As I was thinking I go out of I take there costum. He gin a have been similar experience. As I was thinking I go out of the tright to wear the vest and if I had axed you to early my hog house door on a carriage in the lower barn and back the whole town would had me down for the manest, pesky man on earth, yes.

Death entered our family circle twice good Johnny cakes? Wish last makes such it that makes such the weeks. How lonely the hone, and as each year rolls around we live good Johnny cakes? Wish I knew.

Aline: No, I was not she. I wonder the first to be taken for some-of the first to be taken for some my getting completely run down; whole town would had me down for 1 am thankful I got out of it the meanest, pesky man on earth, yes-easier than you as I was able to do sir-ee! But them wimmen figures carried them like they was pink and slik although not as much as I had plan-Now, alsters, you who live in the country, I beg of you call on the new family who naves into your neigh-berhood. Perhaps many of you may berhood. Perhaps many of you may not know what it means to live in a place several months, and not a neighbor come into your home until death enters there. I think many times it is thoughtle-sness, or diffidence, as these include many of those I now count as my best friends. Now that I have moved, I am again going through the same experience. I was never one to call on strangers; but this has learned me a lesson.

Again, I say, call on the stranger; and if conditions warrant it, he neighboult. Of course, this applies mostly barly. Of course, this applies mostly to the country, as in the city we many filmen do not get acquainted with our next-door neighbor. Vishing you all a Happy New Year,

NAT IS ALL STIRRED UP.

Mr. Editor and Friends: I had bin Mr. Editor and Friends: I had bin to Mill tuther day and when I come long by Si Slocom's, thinks I, guess III stop and see Si. He's went to Willman'te and spent Christmas with his Darter Saray—and I'll ask "How's hogs—'pp or down; and hog's eggs. tew, in Willmantle?" and see if Si's betts lay, and maybe get a look at Si's hogs (El likes to push me a lectic on hogs).

e-e-il, we passed time of day and I seen the hogs (ain't seen no such hogs as miner I tell you) . Was jest driving on when St says, says he: Do you think the wimmen folks will Fetch what?" says L "Fetch what?" says I.

"Why, don't you read the Social Corner in The Builein?" says St.

"Yes," says I, "mostly—bin all-fired drove lately. Ain't read much. Last I knowed they was swatping candy and auch like for Christmus—feet like two kittens. What's up now?"

Says he: "They's all gone daft on rights. They want to vote."

"Shoc now, you don't say, Well, you haver can tell when them there kittens item and claw you!" says I.

"Well," says he, "they'll fetch H.

"Well," says he, "they'll fetch it bout next 'lection You'll be in for the cyster stew, Dooittle," and he went off s-laughing like all possessed. (Si's got a real mean way of laughing when he thinks he said suthing wou don't like), Well, 7 went I went home thinking. Guess the editor is asleep and the watchdog on a rabbit hunt with Papa's Boy. When I got home I sot right down and told Jane to bring two or three weeks' papers. When I finished um I was considerably wrought up. Jest then Jane Ann comes in and says she:

W-e-e-ll, if you are setting a spell, want to ax what's this Sufferage he wimmen are all talking about."

"Why, it's "ights," says [; "and a like to knew, Jane Ann, how many rights you wimmen want anyhow, when I'm wailing through snow waist high to git the criticus took care of, or running round with the tay-kittle to thaw out the old pump when it's plumb to the pump bandle you set by the fire? And when no hot seems like I'd mait right to a grease sopt a-hoeing corn hat there meadow lot, you can rock he plazzy—or sit in the shade? at more do you want?" Well," says Jane, "I sin't not on

"Well," says Jane, "I sin't not on rights," but if it's the fashion to have rights, "spose I'll have to have um, Now, that there made me clear mad,

"Lane Ann! You wimmen folks is as Crusoe does; but may change my mind before the close of 1912. That a cupful of salt peured down a frozen pipe will sometimes save a er's bill.

when a lead pipe first begins leak, gentle hammering will close the leak until help arrives. JANETTE.

HOW TO MAKE A HOUSE JACKET

NOW TO MAKE A HOUSE JACKET

OCIAL

NEW Storm of the Storm

"Yes, I remember," says Jane. "I stitch catching the chains of wanted to go and you said Fd git too der to give a touch of color.

A strand of the yarn and one of the chains of a strand of the yarn and one of the chains.

stitches in between the blocks or border to give a touch of color.

A strand of the yarn and one of the silk are crocneted together in a loose cial'n long enough to form a cord for lacing up under the arms, leaving uncreasing large enough for an arminole. The in a bow at the waist line and finish ence with balls made of the yarn and offer one of the lacing with balls made of the yarn and offer one of the lacing up under the arms, leaving uncreasing large enough for an arminole. The in a bow at the waist line and each finish ence with balls made of the yarn and silk together. Place a button on each front and fasten with cord.

ELIZABETH ENDORSES CRUSOE.

Dear Editor and Social Corner Triends: Hasn't this been a lovely day for New Years—the first day of 1913.

The lack of the yarn and one of the ladies of the ladies of the presents on the tree most of us, objected one of the ladies of the ladies of the ladies of the presents on the tree might not notice that her own name was written upon it.

Later when she received her first move of the ladies of the presents on the tree might not notice that her own name was written upon it.

Later when she received her first move that is more than I could afford this year," caid Miss Emily, the village seamstress. "A dollar, and a little Coption to might not notice that her own name was written upon it.

ELIZABETH ENDORSES CRUSOE.

The lack of the yarn and one of the ladies of the ladies of the presents on the tree might the other things she had bought to give away, and hoped that those was written upon it.

Later when she received her first open the cost of the picture."

Even that is more than I could afford this year," caid Miss Emily, the village seamstress. "A dollar, and a little Coption to might not notice that her own name was written upon it.

Later when she received her first and the was and the last, those who were when it companies to much for him had not notice that there was written upon it.

Later when she received her first by had a floral those and the last, t Yes, yes-but I was saying. Arter I had seen the hogs, sows and sheep and such and looked at the taters, ap-ples and punkins, etc., I thought 'twas time for a feed. A feller what I axed said I could git a plate of beans and such on the Middle of the Way for ten cents, and I sat our down that ten cents, and I sot out down that there middle of suthin' to find um. We-ell, of all the racket you ever heard, and of all the things to see.

riends: Hasn't this been a lovely day or New Year's—the first day of 1913? How interesting the letters all were all to oncet—and such a banging and clashing that I got clean up agin u fence to sort of get my breath, when down the Middle of the Way I seen suthin' moving bout as big as my hôg house door nailed on a cart stake—two doors—and printed on um was. 'Gin wimmen their rights!' 'Vots for wimn en!' and such. They was carried along by men. Two men!' Leastwise. in the last issue.

Crusos: I wish to shake hands with you. I think your ideas correct. We can join in the song 'Taith of our fathers, living still, faith of our fathers, holy faith we will be true to the song 'The dash." I s'posed they was men-anyhow, they had on a man's hat and a man's coat and when they came nigher I seen they had on a man's collar and necktl tew; but just as they got front of me the folks moved along sum, and I'll be ligered if them there men didn't have on a woman's skirt! A feller that stood by says, says he: What do you make out of that 'ere, stranger?' "Kurlous, dreadful kurlous,' I says, Leonard Bridge.

BLACK PANSY'S HINT.

Dear Sisters of the Social Corner: Is there room for one more who has long admired the Corner? In answer to hints about dressmaleg: Were you ever puzzled to know he right and wrong side of goods; ry turning to light and looking for a twill running towards lower right wimmen, Jane Ann, ain't satisfied with curning of a man and a parcel of kids. it they wants to run Uncle Sam and

Ann to the pole, who's going to watch the hired man (if he ain't a voter), and if he is, who'll see to it the hogs don't

To romeone in Canterbury who wrote letter for the Corner recently: Are our initials P. O.?

Please write again.
BLACK PANSY.

TESTED RECIPES.

Dear Sisters of the Social Corner: One and All, here are a few recipes that I know to be tried and true:

Caramel Cake-Half cup of milk, 1 2 squares of chocolate, boil to-er until thick; I cup of sugar, 1-3 up of milk, 1 large cup of flour, 1 tanilla; add the bolled mixture last and bake in two layers. Very nice with a simple frosting. get our head singed, tew.
There goes the clock. I must feed them hogs, or Si'll git ahead of me, sure. So long.

P. S.—I was going to say a word to Old Fashioned Molasses Cookies-One and one-half cups of melasses, I cup of shortening, half cup of sour or sweet milk, I 1-2 teaspoons soda, half teaspoon of ginger, a little salt; flour enough to roll, not too stiff. Bake in the folks, but got wound up and ain't That there card of Ready's was alled very hot oven.

Bake in two crysts.

I hope the sisters will try these and report.

I enjoy the Social Corner very much.

M. E. H.

BEADY'S REPLIES TO CORRESPONDENTS.

BEADY'S REPLIES TO CORRESPONDENTS.

BEADY'S REPLIES TO CORRESPONDENTS.

BEADY'S REPLIES TO CORRE-

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sis-ters: I think I will start right in and answer my correspondents without any preliminary remarks.

preithinary remarks.

Sister M. Roena: I was pleased to hear from you. What a hard trial you passed through. Trust you are getting HOW TO MAKE PRETTY CORSET passed through. South Canterbury. Don't you live a long sitely now. I trust you are getting along sitely now.

among our shut-fins. I have missed tour istiers. I trust you will soon be well. Have your hubby send us a few lines once in a little while.

Fana's Hay: Did you guess it? I think a little while.

I heard them shuging during that spring-like weather we were have line. Come right along. If I do not suppear at once, call at the next house to rest of they are beauspear at once, call at the next house to rest on call, two yards of bleached entonements the rail.

That Mr. January and His Followers there you will find me. I do not want to miss the call.

That Bilie's letter was worth a year's subscription for The Bulletin.

That Mrs. R. and Aunt Jule are making quite an impression on my and then there are no good dispositions and the paper arrives to guite an impression on my and then there are no good dispositions and the paper arrives to guite an impression on my and then there are no good dispositions are mainly and then there are no good dispositions are mainly and then there are no good dispositions are mainly and the nouse is constitutional convention to the half-minute of the did not reply for the half-minute of the duestion of woman suffrage to the voters.

Similar action has been taken by the consistent with the best workmanship to the voters.

Similar action has been taken by the consistent with the best workmanship to the voters.

Similar action has been taken by the consistent with the best workmanship to the full-measured of the voters.

Similar action has been taken by the consistent with the best workmanship to the full-measured of the voters.

Similar action has been taken by the consistent with the best workmanship to the full-measured of the voters.

Similar action has been taken by the consistent with the best workmanship to the full-measured of the voters.

Similar action has been taken by the constitution of woman suffrage of the constitution of the paper arrives he paper

ORIGINAL SOCIAL CORNER STORY

A CHRISTMAS SURPRISE

Written By Aline

work handkerchiefs of simple design; I thought and cared.

mise votes in C. Montville: The members do not re-good very quickly. We will have to them up.

Aunty, I do not know how to play-

When the Corner folks get started the;

Good cheer to all

A FEW PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

Editor Social Corner: I am a stran-

Snow Fiske, Am no puzzle, Come chips. You will not have to carry going by directions accompanying pat-

Crusoe: I wish to shake hands with your I think your ideas correct. We can join in the song Taith of our fathers, living still, faith of our fathers, holy faith we will be true to thee till death."

Sister Ready: Thanks for the Chrisimas card. I wish to extend my sympathy. Those who mave lost dear ones can understand fully the sorrow, yet in the midst of sorrow we have the comforting thought "There is sweet rest in heaven."

Death entored our family circle twice in ten weeks. How lonely the home.

Chips. You are not the carry turn, and the can out the only one who gets lost in the Social Corner. I did yesterday and forgot we were soling to have hot biscuit for ten. The prima of the house did not say anything reference by maker; and your waist costs you about 35 cents at nost and think good singing. I have no choice in these colors you sent. I think both when they come of colors in the social.

Fleur de Lis: I am sorry I missed that good singing. I have no choice in these colors you sent. I think both with a spray of the ever beautiful yellow.

reet the pie.

Elizabeth: Someone has made you muslin waists look much nicer than any different if the mothers should go ise. All there is to do now is to get "thour bows. They are durable and not out once or twice a year to vote at the vise. All there is to do now is to get our company together. Bring the same of finch along. The man of the riboun bows. They are durable and not very costly. Am sending this in, and if it sales the readers will send some

More later.

Hope others will enjoy reading about waists as I do reading their recipes and we'sis as 1 do the readers a Happy Wishing all the readers a Happy New Year, I will sign myself PALSAM FIR. get out a searching party and hunt am waiting to be taught. Come right slong with the others. Sweet William: They are after you.

South Windham, Me. AUNT JULE WANTS TO KEEP THE FIRE BURNING.

Show Fiske. Am no puzzle. Comes

Now, Samantha, do try a little white and see.

Don't rust you did not get lest in the Christmas hastle.

Nat: Am glad you received first
purply to the poor man
the cherise passes you to be compared to the poor man
the Christmas hastle.

Nat: Am glad you received first
purply to the poor man
the christmas hastle.

Nat: Am glad you received first purply to would give it all to Jane Ann. When Cherisette passes you the pile is not afrall to put her ideas upon puper. All-she says is true.

Jane Ann. When Cherisette passes you the pie I will give you a napsin, so there will be no extra spots added to the new cest and tie. You shall swing in purple socks if you want to.

Jane Ann. Was pleased to hear from Jane Ann. Was pleased to hear from to make shirt waisis was a real lesson. to make shirt waists was a real lessor of wear at the social. If you want a seed first prize.

A happy and prosperous New You good place to get one. I guess you can pet a good one for about $5.

Lucy Acorn: I am very fond of pork take. Come to the social and bring a loaf.

Norwich.

CHAT FROM CENTENNIAL SQUARE

Dear Ready: I received your pretty Christmas card. I'm glad to write you I am well, but have been dilatory about writing. Shall do befor the coming year. "Ballove me," I have not forgotten you, nor any of the writers to the Secial Corner. I have kept tabs on Dear Dreamer: In regard to woman all the staters, and some of them shall suffrage, let me ask you a few ques-tions. Has government by then been your very kind thought, and with love such a remarkable success that they and best wishes for the New Year, deserve to hold the memorals, and Dear Dreamer: In regard to woman the We are working for the same ends the Christian brotherhood. While all honest creeds are worthy of re-spect, the one that will cutiast time Christ's all-comprehensive love, ous, buy reason is one, and we are brothers.

Dreamer, are you wide awake? Are greeting this glorious New Year the open portal to great opportun-s? It really seems as though the le world was astir as never before with the woman's question. It is iolities to stay, so you must take your stand on one side or the other. Why, even the fermers are up it arms. The Michigan farmers in their state contention of Farmers' claim resents not only possed a woman suffrage res-olution, but voted to support for leg-islative candidates those who will com'ee to work and vote for equal iffrace. Hillinois farmers, 8,000 strong, voted uranilmously in their state Grange for equal suffrage last week. New Hampshire farmers in their state Grange in Manchester voted by an overwhelming majority to ask the coming constitutional convention to

Across the seas, Ireland has just rad passed a bill making her women eligible as members of borough and county councils by both houses of the British parliament.

In Persia, the women have joined in the national cemons rations against Husela. They have organized processions, addressed meetings on the national cemons rations against the bone in Berlin. cessions, addressed meetings on the public square and mosques, In France, a bill has been introduced Ordant notes.

Dreimer, lay your ear close to the earth and listen to the voice of God, which is speaking through these varicus avenues for the free emuncipation of women, for only as she rises, as the mother of men, will the world be reduced.

May this New Year be the most blessed one that Crusoe and Dreamer have yet known, is the wish of a hance acquaintance Goethe said: "No soul can touch another without leaving its imprint." Maybe we help each other to batter views of life.

MARINDA C. BUTLER ROBINSON. SHUT-IN HAS A WORD WITH MARY.

Sister Elizabeth: Thank you for sending me a Christmas card; w'i write to you later but am too busy

Aunt Jule: You and I think the same on principle.

Prep of Sterling: What are your initials? Have you not three children? Thank you for your opinion on the voting question.

Pear M. Roena: So sorry for you.

I hope the dear bacies will find a home somewhere, My little girl thinks she would like them, but I never could would like them, but I never could care for two babies now, although I love babies. My little daughter named her two Christmas dollies, Ruth and Rose, after the babies. You all have my sympathy. I know how hard it is to be sick. But maybe brighter days are in store for you. You know every bout has a silver lining.

"To A Dreamer. Thanks for your opinion on votes for women. But did you not think "Mother of the Man" by Hall Caine, answered the question? Crusos: Your ideas are not bud; but I don't think the home would be one I don't think the home would be polls. Write again, Crusoe, we like to hear from you. I like a person with a will of their own.

a will of their own.
Wishing all the brothers and sisters
a Happy New Year, I remain, your sister in the Social Corner, SHUT-IN.

SOMEBODY'S GUESSING WHO'S

WHO. Dear Sisters: I think Jane Ann is a suffragette because she doesn't mind. Nat any more; and I also think Cheri-she didn't hit the right one.

Papa's Foy: Is your automobile white and is it more than one horsepower! If your initials aren't L. K. are they V: K.? Crusoe: Do you live on the East or West street? Or don't you live up

Elizabeth: Are your initials E. M. Cherisette: Are you any relation to M. M., and are your initials A. S.? Snowflake: Do you live near the C. : Hurry up and write. It's

A Happy New Year to all, from SOMEBODY

tions, Has government and the produced such a remarkable success that they and best wisnes in the fact that they and best wisnes in the fact the man and women in private life produced such excellent revolute life produced such excellent results that a similar arrangement should work well in the government cap dress those dolls at the club? With all good without for 1912:

CENTENNIAL SQUARE.

They were at Monte Carlo, and, will close, they considered the Casino a place which ought to be visited.

They stood hesitating before one of vary hot oven.

Corn Muffins—One and one-half cups of flour, I cup of meal, I cup of sugar.

2 tablespoons of shortening, I egg, I transpoon cream fartar, half teaspoon sold, a little salt. Make as stiff as cake batter. Sour milk may be used, or sweet.

Nice Lemon Pie—Two heaping tablespoons cornstarch, dissolved in a little milk, I cups of boiling waler; stir until thick; II-2 cups of boiling waler; stir until thick; II-2 cups of sugar, peel and finite of I lemon; 2 eggs, a little salt.

Bake in two crysts.

I hone has sixters will try these and little salt.

Lemon Point of the produced such excellent registers to call will write more often the coming year. Did you have dolls at the club. With all good without the coming year. Did you have dolls at the club. With all good without to be visited. They stood hesitating before one of the tables and at last the temptation to join the players proved too strong for the lady.

They have qualities which are exclusively their own. Should they take part in any legistration of the Social Corner:

A Bayon New Year to Crussel However make we may differ in regard to the lateral inspiration of the Sible, I am fail to make and indeed the produced such excellent regards of the coming year. Did you have the coming year. Did you have chellent to coming year. Did you have dolls at the club. With all good without the club. With all good with the club. With all good without the club. With all good with the club. With all good without the club. With to be lucky." Hubby was inclined to be skeptical, but of course he might have spared himself the trouble of grumbling, and the ten-dollar note was duly deposited on No. 24.

Alas! No. 36 proved to be the winning numeral, and the lady gave a little gasp of despair.

"Serves you right," said her great brute of a husband. "If you'd told the truth you'd have won!"-Tid-Bits.

He Had His Suspicion.

One day a farmer member of the Ohlo house displayed, inadvertently, a large roll of bills in the Nell house lobby. A fellow member gazed in awe at the show of wealth.

Onio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Washington, Wisconsin, and also the national Brief State News

A SIMPLE HOUSE OR WORK DRESS. Ladies' House or Work Dress in Princess Style, With or Without Pocket.

Pink and white checked dimity was osen for this charming model pacious peckets will be found a great invenience: Gingham, percale, lawn chambrey may be used for this del, which will develop nicely without the pockets for a dainty afternoon gown. The pattern is cut in six sizes:
52, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches, bust measure. It requires 4 3-4 yards of 44-inch material for the 36-inch size.
A pattern of this illustration mailed to my address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps. diver or stamps.
Order through The Bulletin Company Pattern Dept., Norwick, Conn.

Elon Bells of Scotland: Are you the one who asked for a clue? Well, have green eyes, that's the only thing. Feed here. We've plenty of the best in the market and at prices that are an say.

Say Ann: Did you say you lived within reason. We will be pleased to take the control of Laborator or Laborator Bridge. Lebanon or Loonard Bridge?

Folly Peppermint: I don't like peprmint flavoring, but, then, I may prempt delivery. A trial order will convince you that it will be to your advantage to trade with

> CHAS. SLOSBERG, 3 Cove St.

Have you had buby's photograph It's an art to take baby's photograph as it should be taken. To catch his rogaish little smile, his pretty little dimple, Such photograps become prized remembrances of babyhood's days in years to come. We have had years of experience in photographing children, They always look their best when we them. No troublesome posing.

Snap them in a jilly. LAIGHTON.

The Photographer,

START THE NEW YEAR RIGHT

That's what everybody tells you, We tell you the same thing. Especially do we tell you this in regard to any jobbing or contract or construction work of any kind in the building line. You will start this right "I just sold a drove of hogs." explained the farmer member rather has tilly and confusedly.

The observing one was thoughtful.

He did not reply for the half-minute the did not reply for the half-minute that the best workmanship.

Opposite Norwich Savings Society.